

International women's day, 2016, was celebrated by School of women's studies Utkal University in association with NSS, P.G.unit, of the University on 8th March at P.G.Council Hall of the University

The celebration was started with a signature campaign in support of Equality.

Inaugural session was presided over by Prof. R.K.Bal, Chairperson , P.G.Council with other dignitaries like Prof. Sukantipriya Pattanaik, Ex-Vice Chancellor, Fakir Mohan University as Chief guest, Smt. Sashiprava Bindhani , Commissioner, State Information Commission, Odisha as the Guest of Honour , Prof. Prativa Manjari Ratha, Dept. of Sanskrit as Chief Speaker.

Dr. Swarna mayee Tripathy , Course coordinator , School of Women' Studies initiated the session while Prof. Sabita Acharya, Director, School of Women's Studies gave the welcome address and Ms. Lucy Hembrum , coordinator NSS gave formal vote of thanks.

Inaugural Session was followed by Prize giving ceremony where winners of different competitions like debate, essay,poster,rangoli and quiz , organized by School of women's studies were honoured with trophies.

After the celebration inside the campus, School of women's studies and NSS unit had gone to Jeevan jyoti orphanage of Bhubaneswar to interact with the inhabitants and spread the message of equality.

